CAIRNCROSS & HEMPELMANN'S CORPORATE LAW PRACTICE GROUP WELCOMES TWO NEW ATTORNEYS

Seattle, Washington – Cairncross & Hempelmann (“CH&”) is excited to announce that Srikant Mikkilineni and Tony Nguyen have both joined the firm’s dynamic Corporate Law practice group. These well-rounded attorneys are key to achieving the firm’s strategic growth plan. “We are thrilled to have Srikant and Tony join our team. Their expertise and experience will strengthen the firm and our Corporate Law practice group as we continue to provide the highest quality of service to all our clients,” says Managing Partner, Matt Hanna.

Srikant Mikkilineni, a graduate of Drake University Law School, focuses his practice on privacy, technology, and intellectual property law. He is an experienced, registered patent attorney, IAPP Certified Information Privacy Professional in U.S. Law, and a Certified Information Privacy Manager. He advises clients on intellectual property issues, including patent application prosecution, foreign patentability issues, Inter Partes Reviews, and Ex Parte Reexaminations. He also provides expertise related to technology, intellectual property, and privacy in the context of mergers and acquisitions, financing, and litigation.

Tony Nguyen, a graduate of the University of Washington School of Law, focuses his practice on corporate business and real estate finance transactions. He advises West Coast technology companies in a broad range of corporate transactions, including venture capital and convertible debt financing, commercial/IP agreements, general corporate matters and buy-and-sell mergers and acquisitions. In his real estate finance practice, he assists in structuring and forming real estate ventures, including construction loans, private lending, syndications and real estate private equity funds.
