Introduction

Aurelia is a business law attorney whose practice focuses on advising public and private companies in complex transactions. Aurelia works primarily with emerging and mid-growth companies providing counsel on mergers and acquisitions, divestitures, commercial contracts, and corporate governance. Her practice includes clients across a spectrum of industries, including consumer goods, software, technology, pharmaceutical and manufacturing.

Throughout the life cycle of a project, Aurelia engages collaboratively with team members and opposing counsel, maintaining open lines of communication to efficiently seek the best result for all those involved. Aurelia regularly provides cross-border counsel to a wide assortment of both foreign and domestic companies, leveraging her experience to maximize tax-efficiency and securities compliance for her clients. She is also well versed in guiding clients through receivership proceedings, representing the company's best interests throughout the process. Prior to landing in Seattle, Aurelia practiced as a corporate associate at Jones Day in Cleveland, Ohio.
