Introduction

Emina is a member of the CH& Litigation group. Her strong research, organizational and analytical skills effectively and efficiently assist clients with a wide range of litigation-related matters.

She joined the firm in 2019 as Cairncross & Hempelmann's Diversity Fellowship Summer Associate. Prior to joining Cairncross & Hempelmann, Emina was a Rule 9 Intern with the Washington Innocence Project working on appeals, motions, and other litigation for clients who were wrongly incarcerated. She also worked at Columbia Legal Services and assisted staff attorneys with investigations of jail policies that impact civil and human rights.

Emina received her Juris Doctorate from the University of Washington School of Law in 2021. At UW Law, she served as the President of the Student Bar Association, an Executive Articles Editor on the Washington Law Review, and Vice President of National Competitions for the Moot Court Honor Board. She earned the Jack MacDonald Merit Award, the Judge Eugene Wright Scholar Award, and was selected for the Order of the Barristers.
