Introduction

Jon is an integral member of the Firm's litigation practice group, focusing on complex commercial litigation. Jon is experienced in a broad range of litigation types and has an aptitude for quickly grasping highly-nuanced industries and conflicts. He is motivated to drive results and value for his clients, seeking right-sized solutions to their problems. His clients and colleagues appreciate his attention to detail and determination to achieve resolutions that are both logical and efficient. Jon is active in the Next Generation Group of Mackrell International and has been recognized by his peers and Super Lawyers as a "Rising Star" and The Best Lawyers in America as "One to Watch" in his field.

In addition to handling business disputes in state and federal courts, his broad experience covers appellate, securities, antitrust, trade secrets, and products liability litigation. Jon regularly represents entities and individuals in property tax appeals, where he has successfully argued for reductions in his clients' property tax valuations, resulting in substantial tax savings over multiple years. He has also represented financial institutions in a variety of civil matters, including consumer class actions and arbitrations, mortgage foreclosures and related litigation, and regulatory compliance.
