Introduction

Michelle is a member of CH&'s Business practice group where she assists clients with entity formation, contracts, employment matters, and day-to-day business needs. She joined the firm in 2023 and 2024 as CH&'s Diversity Fellowship Summer Associate. Prior to joining CH&, Michelle was an associate at the Milken Institute's Center for Financial Markets (now known as Milken Institute Finance), where she identified strategies for infrastructure financing and co-managed an online platform.

While attending the University of Washington School of Law, Michelle participated in the Federal Tax Clinic and served as a Co-President of the Women's Law Caucus and Treasurer of the Latinx Law Student Association. She also served as a Senior Managing Editor of the Washington International Law Journal.
