CAIRNCROSS & HEMPELMANN WELCOMES BINAH B. YEUNG

Seattle, Washington – Cairncross & Hempelmann is pleased to announce the addition of Binah B. Yeung to the litigation team. With Binah’s addition, the litigation group continues its growth and further broadens its ability to help clients efficiently and effectively resolve business disputes.

Binah has represented a wide range of businesses and individuals in all aspects of commercial disputes, including complex contract, creditor and debtor rights, construction, loss mitigation, fraudulent misrepresentation, and real estate. She is a practical and strategic advocate with 6 years of extensive case assessment and strategy, discovery, motion practice, mediation, trial, and appeal experience.

Binah stays active in the community through her continuing pro bono and volunteer endeavors, and is a recipient of the King County Bar Association Outstanding Young Lawyer Award. She currently serves on the Board of Directors for Jazz Night School and for the Consumer Education and Training Services (CENTS) program.

Litigation practice group co-leader, Ana-Maria Popp confirmed, “the firm is thrilled to have Binah as a new addition. Her experience litigating such a wide range of matters allows us to continue to provide superior legal representation in complex commercial, real estate, construction and eminent domain matters. She has the experience, judgment, and broad understanding of clients’ businesses to help them find the best possible resolutions to their disputes.”

Binah comes to Cairncross & Hempelmann by way of Schweet Linde & Coulson, PLLC. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Anthropology from the University of British Columbia, and her Juris Doctorate from Lewis and Clark Law School where she graduated cum laude. In her free time, she enjoys practicing kendo, woodworking, and learning to play jazz piano.
